Carve a message in stone and support fishing opportunities for anglers of all ages and abilities.

Purchasing a stone paver is a unique and lasting way to show your support for the John E. Pechmann Fishing Education Center. The center, located in Fayetteville, N.C., provides anglers of all ages and abilities with opportunities to learn about fish, fishing, aquatic ecology and conservation. Sales of the pavers support the aquatic programs conducted at the Pechmann Center, as well as fisheries outreach programs coordinated across the state through the center, including a mobile aquarium, kids' Fish-for-Fun events and a Tackle Loaner Program. Paver purchases are tax deductible.

Pavers are available in three sizes. Prices are:

- 6" x 9" paver (product code DIR10278) is $100 engraved with up to 48 characters, including spaces
- 6" x 6" paver (product code DIR10277) is $75 engraved with up to 40 characters, including spaces
- 3" x 6" paver (product code DIR10276) is $50 engraved with up to 20 characters, including spaces

Built in 2007, the John E. Pechmann Fishing Education Center is the N.C. Wildlife Resources Commission's newest education facility. It is named after former Wildlife Commission Chairman John E. Pechmann, a prominent Fayetteville attorney who passed away in 2005. Mr. Pechmann was a driving force behind the planning, funding and construction of the new fishing education center that now bears his name.

The Pechmann Center's mission is to educate the public on angling and aquatic habitat conservation through interactive fishing programs and clinics. At 4,800 square feet, the center features a classroom and exhibit hall, a universally accessible fishing structure and more than six acres of ponds teeming with a variety of popular gamefishes.
