?FlyingWILD ?Greensboro? 10/26/18

This program takes place at Kathleen Clay Edwards Library in Greensboro from 9:30 am - 4:00pm. Workshop and materials are FREE.

FlyingWILD workshops are for adults interested in teaching young people about wildlife. Participants receive the Flying WILDElementary and Middle School educator guide along with materials specifically about North Carolina wildlife. The educator guide contains more than 30 hands-on activities that focus on wildlife and natural resources. Participants are eligible for Criteria I credit of NC OEE Environmental Education Certification and school teachers receive CEU credit.
