

N.C. Wildlife Resources Commission's National Hunting and Fishing Day in North Carolina Events

Sept. 24, 2016

National Hunting and Fishing Day in North Carolina: Wildlife Expo

Where: Lake Raleigh
Centennial Campus-N.C. State University
Raleigh, N.C. 27606

When: Sept. 24, 9 a.m. until 1 p.m.

Event Description: Enjoy free hands-on activities and demonstrations about the important roles hunting and fishing play in North Carolina's fish and wildlife conservation. Everyone – of all ages – can participate in activities and watch demonstrations including:

- Fishing in Lake Raleigh — a 75-acre lake with two fishing piers — for catfish and largemouth bass.
- Fish with the pros! Lew's Fishing and Skeeter Boats-sponsored Elite Bassmaster Pro angler Marty Robinson, who is a three-time qualifier for the Bassmaster Classic, and Skeeter Boats-sponsored Elite Bassmaster Pro angler Shane Lineberger will be onsite providing tips and techniques on catching fish!
- Backyard Bass with local fishing pro Adam Petty
- Lifejacket Safety Zone
- Living with Wildlife in Your Backyard display
- Taxidermy Demonstration
- Tree Stand Safety
- Archery Range
- Hunting Tips and Techniques with Hunting Heritage Biologist Walter "Deet" James
- Boat Displays
- Wild & Tasty Cast Iron Cooking with Chef Chad McIntyre

Partners & Sponsors:

Lew's Fishing
Skeeter Boats
Field & Stream
N.C. Partners in Amphibian and Reptile Conservation

Bass Pro Shops
Cabela's
Wake County Wildlife Club