

THE NORTH CAROLINA WILDLIFE RESOURCES COMMISSION ANNOUNCES CONSTRUCTION OF
The New Rhodes Pond Spillway and Impoundment Restoration

PROJECT HIGHLIGHTS:

- Return of Rhodes pond to historic water levels
- Reopening of boating access area and installation of new floating fishing pier
- New labyrinth spillway for controlled discharge of severe storm events
- Baffle chute for energy dissipation and protection of the black river
- New secondary spillway designed for health of black river side channel
- Reconstructed embankment with erosion protection for long-term stability

PROJECT ARCHITECT:

McGill Associates
5400 Trinity Road, Suite 107
Raleigh, Nc 27607

NCWRC CONTACT:

Brad Kleinmaier
Capital Projects Coordinator
brad.kleinmaier@ncwildlife.org

PROJECT FUNDING:

For project updates please visit:
ncwildlife.org/news/rhodes-pond-update