White Bass (Morone chrysops)

- Tongue with a single patch of teeth
- Deep bodied
- Stripes often broken below lateral line and not as bold as those on a striped bass
- No membrane between dorsal fins
- 12 anal rays

White Bass Size & Creel Limits in Inland Waters: 14-inch minimum and 10 fish per day

White Perch (Morone americana)

- Deepest part of body in front of dorsal fin
- Tongue with no teeth
- Silvery sides lack dark stripes
- Dorsal fins joined by a membrane
- Tail narrower than white bass
- 8 or 9 anal rays

White Perch Size & Creel Limits in Inland Waters: No size limit; no daily creel limit ncwildlife.org/fishing

Illustrations: Duane Raver