

Nominations Sought for 2019 Nongame Wildlife Conservation Award

The N.C. Wildlife Resources Commission is seeking nominations through Jan. 31, 2019 for the 14th annual Thomas L. Quay Wildlife Diversity Award. The award recognizes individuals who provide leadership in the conservation of nongame wildlife in North Carolina. Nongame wildlife are species that have no hunting, trapping or fishing seasons.

Anyone interested in nominating someone for the award must submit the nomination form on the next page and a detailed essay of the nominee's contributions to nongame wildlife conservation. The essay is limited to two pages (8 ½ x 11-inch paper, with 1-inch margins, single spaced and 12-point font). Submissions that exceed the 2-page limit will be disqualified and returned to the nominator.

Submit nominations by:

- E-mail to melinda.huebner@ncwildlife.org
- Mail to N.C. Wildlife Resources Commission, Inland Fisheries Division, c/o Melinda Huebner, 1722 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, N.C. 27699-1700
- Fax to 919-707-0028

In addition to this year's nominations, nominations submitted in 2018 and 2017 will be considered. Nominations submitted before 2016 will be considered upon request.

The Nongame Wildlife Advisory Committee will recommend nominees for consideration by the wildlife commissioners at their April 2019 meeting. The winner will be announced at the Commissioners' meeting in July.
